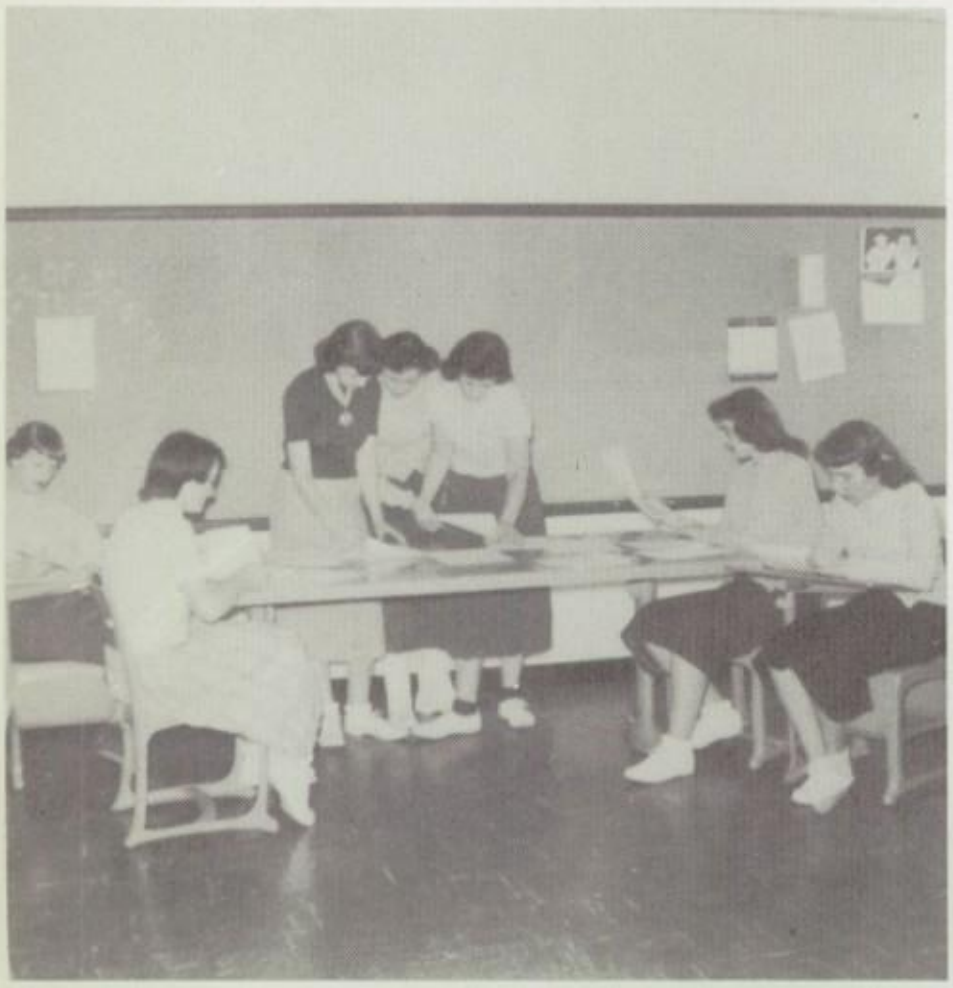
Dedication

Our principal, Ralph Gardner, we honor with the dedication of the 1954 Honker in view of the help, cooperation, education, and fun he has given us this year. Although he is new to Arlington, his accomplishments are many; therefore, we gratefully dedicate to Ralph Gardner our 1954 Honker, with sincere thanks for all he has done.



Foreword

"LIFE IS JUST A SONG", and if you will notice the title pages you will find just that. We thought the songs were very appropriate.

When making this annual we tried to take in all of the usual and some outside functions of the school year. We, of the annual staff, sincerely hope you like this 1954 Honker.

Basketball. . . . . I Cross My Fingers

'A' String

The Arlington Honkers started out as a young team this year with only three seniors on the team. They lacked height though, with only one player hitting the six foot mark. What they lacked in height they made up for in spirit and speed. The first string consisted of (from left to right) John Deen, Jack West, Monte Rhinehart, Darrell Harford, Don Kumm, John Hutson, Don Marshall, Jay Wheelhouse, LeRoy Thornhill, Eddie Palmer, Manager-Elmer Ellis and Coach-Joe Moran.

Basketball . . . . . I Cross My Fingers

'B' String
